NOTES AND ORDERS.

14th August '16, posted on the same date, along with the other covers, from the Office of the Sakleshpur Sub-Division. Apparently no efforts have been made either by the Sub-divisional Assistant Commr or by the District Lock-up Officer to find out, if possible, how the cover in question has disappeared. As it was not sent registered, the postal authorities can undertake no responsibility in the matter.

List III.

The D. G. of Prisons is, however, of opinion that neither the Court authorities nor the Dt. Lock-up Officer are at fault.

The report of the enquiry made by the Assistant Commissioner shows that none of the clerks was responsible, that the communication was duly posted. There is also clear proof that the Lockup office did not receive it, and the presumption is that it must have been lost in transit. Under the circumstances, nothing further can be done, and draft recording is submitted for favour of approval or that order. Eg 10-1 Second Member.

SIR,

I have the honor to intimate that the District Magistrate of Hassan, brings to my notice that a convict by name Thimmegowda, who was admitted on 19-7-1916 to the District Lock-up at Hassan, to undergo a sentence of simple imprisonment for one month and to pay a fine of Rs. 100/- in default to suffer rigorous imprisonment for 2 months passed by the First Class Magistrate Sakalespur Division, in Criminal Case No. 105 of 1915-16, was overdetained in the said Lock-up for 4 days, as the Lock-up Officer did not receive timely intimation, from the sentencing Court, regarding the recovery of the fine imposed upon the prisoner.

2. From the records received from the District Magistrate it is seen, that neither the Court authorities nor the officer in charge of the Lock-up are at fault.
